

DREX DAVIS
for Secretary of State

Drex Davis has spent more than 23 years in state government, including the last four as State Treasurer. He served four years as Clerk of the Court of Appeals, was deputy clerk of the high court for 12 years and served in the Secretary of State's office four years as chief corporation clerk.

JAMES B. GRAHAM
for Superintendent of Public Instruction

A veteran in the field of education, Dr. James Graham has been superintendent of local school districts in Kentucky for 20 years. The Bardstown native's top priority is greater funding for public and secondary education and equalization in Kentucky's per pupil expenditures.

BOB STEPHENS for Attorney General

Lexington attorney Bob Stephens has served as Fayette County Judge since 1969 and is a past secretary-treasurer and president of the Kentucky County Judges Association. He is currently president of the Kentucky Association of Counties.

TOM HARRIS
for Commissioner of Agriculture

Former state senator and Commissioner of Natural Resources and Environmental Protection, Tom Harris is chairman of the Kentucky Tobacco and Health Research Board, vice-president of the Carrollton Tobacco Board of Trade and a member of the Kentucky and National Simmental Cattle Associations.

GEORGE ATKINS
for State Auditor

Hopkinsville Mayor George Atkins says if you are required to pay your taxes annually, then you certainly have a right to know how these taxes are spent annually. The 34-year-old business management graduate of the University of Kentucky is president of U.K.'s national alumni association and a member of the National League of Cities Environmental Quality Committee.

MARTHA LAYNE COLLINS
for Clerk of the Court of Appeals

A political activist, Martha Layne Collins, of Versailles, is secretary of the Kentucky Democratic Party and Kentucky's Democratic National Committeewoman. She formerly taught in the Jefferson and Woodford County school systems.

FRANCES JONES MILLS
for State Treasurer

Presently Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Frances Jones Mills was the first woman to serve in the General Assembly from southeastern Kentucky and the first Democrat elected to the House from Knox County since 1876. She is president of the National Appellate Court Clerk's Association.

Paid for by:
Democrats United/75
P.O. Box 1975
Frankfort, Ky. 40601
Wm. S. Haynes, Treasurer

DEMOCRATS UNITED
'75